

Director

Gabriele Moratti

Born in Milan on 18th November 1978. He graduated in sociology and art history from Duke University (USA).

Since 2010 he is a member of Saras' SpA Board of Directors.

He began working for Saras in the Human Resources Department, where, in particular, he oversaw projects linked to training on environmental and safety issues. In June 2006, he joined JP Morgan, where he gained significant experience in the financial sector with specific regard to mergers and acquisitions, both in Milan and at the European Headquarters in London. From 2007 he joined Saras again, as Assistant to the General Manager, to directly oversee ongoing organizational and managerial development projects. Until April 2013 he followed the business development projects for the Saras Group.

He is chairman of Stella Holding S.p.A.